Once again Beerlovers your newsletter is here (After a one month lapse in my sense of responsibility). I just never got around to writing the newsletter lastmonth. Really it was a rewrite, since I did write it, but accidentally destroyed the computer file and just never did it again. No Valid Excuses, but it wont happen again. My appolgies.

Old Business:

Our September and October meetings were both successes.

No corrections were made to the minutes since there was no newsletter.

The Treasurer's report was as follows:

At the end of the September meeting the treasury contained $339.25. $25.00 was spent on postage, $29.00 for the meeting, and $55.00 was taken in for new member fees. This leaves a balance in the treasury of $340.25.

A vote was held at our September meeting and our newsletter will be named "Baron Mind" (as in Bear in mind)

Judging Group Reports:

The Brown Ale group met at The Duke of York and came up with a list of classic Brown Ales to use to start their learning process.

The Weiss bee group met and tried three weiss beers and started comparing them.

The Stout group did not meet.

Upcoming Meetings:

Mark will also be bringing some Hacker-Pschorr beer glasses that will be for sale at $2.00 each.

Last Meeting's Highlights:

At last month's meeting we had a comparative tasting between various styles of Oktoberfest beers. Mark Proell brought 3 German Oktoberfests (Spaten Marzen, Hofbrau Munchen and Paulaner) and 1 Domestic (Capital Gartenbrau). In addition, Ted Wilinski and Mike Bishop each provided their versions of Homebrew Oktoberfests. During the tasting Mark told us a little history about the Oktoberfest in Germany and also about each beer that we were tasting. After the tasting, we all voted on our first and second favorites. The results are shown below. Thanks again to Mark, Mike and Ted for their efforts.

Beer	First Choice Votes	Second Choice Votes
Spaten Marzen	15	7
Hofbrau Munchen	0	0
Paulaner	2	8
Capital Gartenbrau	4	6
Mike's Homebrew	0	1
Ted's Homebrew	Honorable Mention, but Not Really in Style	4
