From the Presidents Desk...

Dear Beer Baron Members,

I'm writing this letter to all of you fellow beer lovers from the Great North - the U.P. of Michigan. I'm on a business trip, and in between work hours I have had time to sample a nice selection of craft beers. My past trips to the U.P. have been void of a large selection of craft beer, but the north has finally joined the rest of us and opened more craftbrew houses, with some nice beer to boot.

They still have one dilemma, most of the beer sold up here is still "BUD". One day when all the UBERS subside to northern Wisconsin we can train them what beer and ales should taste like. They also have one other nasty habit, they all drive like they live in ILLINOIS, and they let you know if your in their way, if you know what I mean. Lots of single digit birds in your face!

Nextly, don't forget about our club Nomination and Election of officers coming up the next 2 Months. We need to fill most of the positions; I personally will help any new officer get over the rough

Jolly's on Harwood Beer Dinner

Jolly's on Harwood in Wauwatosa held a Beer Dinner on Monday October 9th. A beer dinner generally is one where beer is used in cooking the food, and that same beer (or one that compliments the food) is served with each course.

In this case, we were served Wisconsin craft brews paired with a variety of interesting and delicious dishes. Everything from the appetizers through the dessert was presented well, and gave the taste buds a workout.

A rough count showed that about 1/3rd of the attendees were Beer Barons members or companions.

I would strongly recommend that if you get the opportunity to attend a beer dinner, give it a shot. Most of the local Brew Pubs offer these dinners from time to time, and other restaurants also try it occasionally.

All in all, this was an enjoyable evening that I would not hesitate to repeat.

Beer Barons e-mail List

The club has an Email List each member is welcome to subscribe to.

The list is for sharing information related to beer and brewing. Any last minute changes to meetings will be sent out via email. We know that not everyone has email, but for those who do have it, please feel welcome to join in.

The list is a private one. That means you have to ask to be subscribed. Send an email to Jeff Kane at jkane@execpc.com, and he will subscribe you.

If you are a member, and want to no longer receive emails, please send him an email to request being removed. The list is set up this way to keep non-member traffic from flooding the list.

There is no moderation of content. To keep things simple, it will stay this way as long as there is no abuse of the open message policy. If you have complaints about the kind of emails sent, please let Jeff know.

If your email box is inaccessible (full or otherwise) and the sent mail bounces for 3 days, you will be automatically unsubscribed. If you notice you are no longer getting emails, and want to be resubscribed, please send Jeff an email asking to be resubscribed. It is easier to re-add names to the list than it is to keep track of who has stopped using an older email address!

Once you are a member, you simply send an email to:

and everyone in the club who has subscribed will get a copy of the email. Feel free to use this to announce upcoming events, or ask Beer and Brewing questions.

If you have any comments or questions, email Jeff Kane, or call him at 262-238-9073.

Beer Barons Club Shirts

We are ready to take orders for the Beer Barons Club Shirts.

At the September meeting the membership voted to select a polo shirt style for the shirts, and selected colors ash, teal, and burgundy. The shirts will feature the Club Emblem (pictured at right). The emblem will be applied with an embroidery-like technique, which means it will not fade as it would using other methods such as heat transfer.

The price of the shirt is $32. This includes any taxes. Shirts can be ordered using the form below. Bring the form with the money to the October meeting, or mail it with a check to the P.O. Box listed on the form.
